

Woodward & Lothrop

New York—WASHINGTON—Paris.

Store Will Close at 5:30 p. m. Daily Until Further Notice.

Friday's Our Remnant Day.

REMNANTS accumulate quickly; odds and ends gather thick and fast continuously; other things are constantly getting soiled, mussed, or otherwise unfit for regular stock—can't prevent it in an active business. Our policy demands the immediate and complete clearance of all such goods. Nothing to do but to sell them at a loss to accomplish this end. Thus great price reductions prevail on remnant days, and the buying opportunities afforded are many and attractive.

Special attention is called to the following Bargain Lots, which represent unusual values:

Friday Bargain in Trimmed Hats.

A desirable collection of Trimmed Hats, suitable for street and general wear, offered at half and less than half price. Straw braids, attractively trimmed with flowers and ribbons, and some with quills.

Special price, $3.00 each.

Were $6.00 and $8.00.

Second floor—Tenth st.

Friday Bargain in Near-Pongee Waists.

A lot of Women's Near-Pongee Waists, in natural color, plain tailored Gibson style, with pocket; tailored shirt sleeves; fasten in front. Sizes, 34 to 42.

$2.50 each. Value, $4.50.

Third floor—G st.

Friday Bargain in Lawn Shirt Waists.

A lot of Women's French Lawn Shirt Waists, with front of embroidery, German Valenciennes insertion, and fine tucks; long sleeves trimmed to match; fasten in back. All sizes.

$1.95 each. Value, $2.50.

Third floor—G st.

Friday Bargain in Girls' Gingham Dresses.

A lot of Girls' Gingham Dresses, in light and dark plaids; long-waisted effect, with high neck and three-quarter sleeves; full-plated skirt with deep hem; sizes 8 to 14.

Special price, $1.75 each.

Values, $2.50, $2.75, and $3.75.

Third floor—G st.

Friday Bargain in Fancy Nets.

A small lot of 44-inch Nets, white and ecru, in figured, striped, and spotted effects. Suitable for waists, sleeves, yokes, etc.

Special price, 35c a yard.

Values, 50c and 75c.

Main floor—G st.

Friday Bargain in Linen Suitings.

Another lot of those Linen Suitings that were advertised last Friday, and sold in a few hours. Natural color and all pure linen. Suitable for dresses, separate skirts, etc.; 28 inches wide.

Special price, 15c a yard.

Second floor—Eleventh st.

Friday Bargain in Silk Parasols.

A small lot of Silk Parasols, in all the fashionable shades, and in plain and tucked effects.

$1.95 each.

Values, $3.00 and $3.50.

Main floor—Tenth st.

Friday Bargain in Women's Umbrellas.

A lot of Women's 26-inch Black Gloria Umbrellas, with steel rod, paragon frame, close roll, and silver and oxidized trimmed selected wood handles.

Special price, $2.00 each.

Value, $2.50.

Main floor—Tenth st.

Friday Bargain in Leather Suit Cases.

A small lot of Leather Suit Cases, 22, 26, and 28-inch sizes; slightly shopworn. An excellent value.

Special price, $1.95 each.

Were $3.95 and $4.50.

Basement—Buttalt Building.

Friday Bargains in Colored Dress Goods.

3-part-pieces Chiffon Poplin (silk-and-wool), a very sheer, silky fabric, in cream, navy blue, and light gray striped effects.

50c the yard. Value, $1.25.

A small lot of All-silk Tan Marquise, a beautiful square mesh material made to sell for $1.75 the yard. Also about eight yards of paeon blue included.

Special price, 50c the yard.

Second floor—G st.

Woodward & Lothrop.

IN THE SOCIAL WORLD

Miss Worthington Weds Mr. Angus MacD. Crawford.

MARRIED IN CHRIST CHURCH

Baroness Takahira Shows Interest in Tariff Debate in the Senate—Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Garrison Ricketson Purchase Washington House. Admiral Dewey to Go to Hot Springs.

Miss Elizabeth Lewis Worthington, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Yellott Worthington, was married last evening to Mr. Angus MacDonald Crawford, of San Antonio, Tex., son of Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Angus Crawford, of the Theological Seminary, near Alexandria. The ceremony was performed at 8 o'clock in Christ Church, Georgetown, by Rev. Dr. Crawford, father of the bridegroom, and Rev. J. H. W. Blake, rector of Christ Church, and was followed by a reception for the wedding party, the two families, and the out-of-town guests. The bride was attended by Miss Alice Laurie Crawford, sister of the bridegroom, maid of honor, Miss Gertrude Campbell Fry and Miss Nannie S. McClelland, of this city; Miss Frances Peyton Page, of Winchester, Va.; and Miss Beatrice Crawford, of Alexandria, bridesmaids. Mr. Charles B. Crawford, of Alexandria, was best man, and the ushers were Mr. Oswald W. Randolph, of Chicago; Mr. Thomas K. Nelson, of Maryland; Mr. Charles R. Hoof, Mr. Philip Dawson, and Mr. Daniel B. Conrad, all of Virginia, and Mr. George Y. Worthington, Jr., of Baltimore. The bride wore a gown of white duchesse satin, with panels of pearl and chenille embroidery, and a long court train. Her tulle veil was held with orange blossoms and she carried a shower of Bride roses and lilies of the valley. The bridesmaids wore white embroidered batiste and carried daisies, and the bridesmaids wore gowns of white batiste and carried bunches of American Beauties. After the reception the bride and bridegroom left for a short wedding trip in the North, and will return to Washington before starting on their long journey to their future home, San Antonio, Tex. Among the out-of-town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Houston, of Philadelphia, and Mrs. F. W. Davis, of New York; Miss Belle Coale, of New York; Col. and Mrs. Boykin, of Baltimore; Mr. and Mrs. Y. Worthington, of Baltimore; Mr. Stuart Hunter, of Baltimore; Mr. Nelson, of Maryland; and Miss Frances Peyton Page, both of Winchester; and Rev. and Mrs. Angus Crawford, of Seminary Hill, Alexandria, Va.

Baroness Takahira, wife of the Japanese Ambassador, was among the spectators in the diplomatic gallery of the United States Senate yesterday, showing much interest in the tariff debate. The marriage is announced of Miss Mary Cecilia O'Connell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James O'Connell, and sister of Representative O'Connell, to Mr. James Bennett Kelly, of this city. The ceremony was performed Wednesday in St. Peter's Church, in the presence of Rev. Edward J. Kenney, who celebrated nuptial high mass. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Elizabeth M. O'Connell, and the bridegroom had Mr. William A. Fealy, best man. The future home of the bride and bridegroom will be in Washington.

The Minister from Uruguay and Mme. Lahaur will leave to-morrow for New York and will sail on June 20 for their own country.

Capt. Sowerby, naval attaché of the British Embassy, left Washington yesterday for the West, to visit the exposition at Seattle and to make visits along the Pacific coast.

Miss Emily Tuckerman, of this city, is making a visit with Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt at Sagamore Hill, Oyster Bay. Miss Tuckerman is in the closest of terms with Mrs. Roosevelt, having lived during her residence in Washington.

Commander and Mrs. William Manning Irwin, and their daughter, Miss Anne Irwin, and Mrs. Irwin's sister, Mrs. D. P. McCartney, left yesterday for their summer home, "The Anchorage," at Oosterville, Mass., where they will spend the summer.

Miss Katherine Jennings, who left Washington with her parents several weeks ago, is now the guest of Mrs. Edwin Corning, near Maxwell, at Albany, N. Y.

Capt. and Mrs. Walter McLean and their daughter, Miss Elsie McLean, will go to New York to-day to attend the wedding of Miss McLean's cousin, Miss Rebekah McLean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald McLean, to Lieut. J. de B. W. Gardner, U. S. A., which will take place at noon to-morrow. The bride and bridegroom will go to Europe for their wedding trip, and will be at home later in the summer at West Point, where the bridegroom is stationed.

Maj. David D. Porter, U. S. M. C., will leave Washington to-morrow for Panama on a tour of inspection, after which he will go to Europe to join his wife and Miss Marguerite Barbour, who sailed last month.

Former Secretary of Commerce and Labor and Mrs. Oscar Straus are being entertained constantly, but informally, during their few days' stay at the New Willard previous to their departure for Europe, where Mr. Straus will take up his new duties as United States Ambassador to Turkey. They will make a visit to their summer home at Elberon, N. J., which is being occupied by their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Schaffer. They will leave the city to-morrow, and sail on July 4.

Miss Frances Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben De Mier Miller, has returned to her home. She spent June week in Annapolis in a house party as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. William Breremont, who have a son in the navy and another son, a midshipman in the Navy Academy class of '11. Previous to going to Annapolis Miss Miller had just returned from spending a fortnight in New York City with her mother's relatives. While there a luncheon was given her at the Plaza Hotel by Lady Radfield, of England, and Miss Wickersham, sisters of Attorney General Wickersham.

Presented with a Sword. State Deputy Caffee of the Modern Woodmen of America, Wednesday night in Red Men's Hall, Georgetown, presented to Chief Forester Carroll, of the Georgetown jurisdiction, a handsome sword. There was a large attendance of members of the Georgetown and Washington jurisdictions.

The degree team of the Georgetown camp will give a public entertainment some time during the summer.

ENGINEER BAND CONCERT. LINCOLN PARK.

Engineer Band concert, Julius Kamper, chief musician, Friday, June 11, 1909, 7:30 p. m.

March, "The Observer".....Barnard Overture, "Zampa".....Herold Idyl, "The Glowworm".....Lilke Selection, "The Sultan of Sulu".....Walsh Waltz, "Danab Wave".....Ivanoff Selection, "The Three Tunes".....Rochina Chorus dance, "Mazurka".....Mazurka Descriptive fantasia, "A Day at West Point".....Bentley "The Star Spangled Banner".....Bentley

Summer Home Furnishings

IF you have any China, Glass, Silver, or Kitchen Ware to buy for your summer home, supply your needs NOW.

You'll find shopping most satisfactory at this time, while our stocks of summer home furnishings are complete in every detail.

Many exceptional values in Dinner Ware, Toilet Ware, and Glassware for summer use—desirable, yet very inexpensive—may be had at this time.

77 We are sole District of Columbia agents for the famous EDDY REFRIGERATORS. Eddy Ice Chests, $7.50 up; Uprights, $15.38 up.

Dulin & Martin Co., Pottery, Porcelain, China, Glass, Silver, &c.

1215 F St. and 1214-18 G St.

family present were: Mr. Walter A. Brooks, Dr. J. Lester Brooks, Mr. Floyd V. Brooks, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. George L. Starkey, the latter being the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ash.

Invitations have been issued by Mr. and Mrs. William George Lee, of this city, for the marriage of their daughter, Mary Louise Lee, to Mr. Elliott Brewer, of Lansdowne, Pa. The ceremony will be performed at 8 o'clock Wednesday evening, June 23, in Foundry M. E. Church. Mr. Brewer and his bride will be at home after July 15 at 119 West Baltimore avenue, Lansdowne, Pa.

The marriage is announced of Miss Mary Cecilia O'Connell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James O'Connell, and sister of Representative O'Connell, to Mr. James Bennett Kelly, of this city. The ceremony was performed Wednesday in St. Peter's Church, in the presence of Rev. Edward J. Kenney, who celebrated nuptial high mass. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Elizabeth M. O'Connell, and the bridegroom had Mr. William A. Fealy, best man. The future home of the bride and bridegroom will be in Washington.

The Minister from Uruguay and Mme. Lahaur will leave to-morrow for New York and will sail on June 20 for their own country.

Capt. Sowerby, naval attaché of the British Embassy, left Washington yesterday for the West, to visit the exposition at Seattle and to make visits along the Pacific coast.

Miss Emily Tuckerman, of this city, is making a visit with Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt at Sagamore Hill, Oyster Bay. Miss Tuckerman is in the closest of terms with Mrs. Roosevelt, having lived during her residence in Washington.

Commander and Mrs. William Manning Irwin, and their daughter, Miss Anne Irwin, and Mrs. Irwin's sister, Mrs. D. P. McCartney, left yesterday for their summer home, "The Anchorage," at Oosterville, Mass., where they will spend the summer.

Miss Katherine Jennings, who left Washington with her parents several weeks ago, is now the guest of Mrs. Edwin Corning, near Maxwell, at Albany, N. Y.

Capt. and Mrs. Walter McLean and their daughter, Miss Elsie McLean, will go to New York to-day to attend the wedding of Miss McLean's cousin, Miss Rebekah McLean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald McLean, to Lieut. J. de B. W. Gardner, U. S. A., which will take place at noon to-morrow. The bride and bridegroom will go to Europe for their wedding trip, and will be at home later in the summer at West Point, where the bridegroom is stationed.

Maj. David D. Porter, U. S. M. C., will leave Washington to-morrow for Panama on a tour of inspection, after which he will go to Europe to join his wife and Miss Marguerite Barbour, who sailed last month.

Former Secretary of Commerce and Labor and Mrs. Oscar Straus are being entertained constantly, but informally, during their few days' stay at the New Willard previous to their departure for Europe, where Mr. Straus will take up his new duties as United States Ambassador to Turkey. They will make a visit to their summer home at Elberon, N. J., which is being occupied by their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Schaffer. They will leave the city to-morrow, and sail on July 4.

Miss Frances Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben De Mier Miller, has returned to her home. She spent June week in Annapolis in a house party as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. William Breremont, who have a son in the navy and another son, a midshipman in the Navy Academy class of '11. Previous to going to Annapolis Miss Miller had just returned from spending a fortnight in New York City with her mother's relatives. While there a luncheon was given her at the Plaza Hotel by Lady Radfield, of England, and Miss Wickersham, sisters of Attorney General Wickersham.

Presented with a Sword. State Deputy Caffee of the Modern Woodmen of America, Wednesday night in Red Men's Hall, Georgetown, presented to Chief Forester Carroll, of the Georgetown jurisdiction, a handsome sword. There was a large attendance of members of the Georgetown and Washington jurisdictions.

The degree team of the Georgetown camp will give a public entertainment some time during the summer.

ENGINEER BAND CONCERT. LINCOLN PARK.

Engineer Band concert, Julius Kamper, chief musician, Friday, June 11, 1909, 7:30 p. m.

March, "The Observer".....Barnard Overture, "Zampa".....Herold Idyl, "The Glowworm".....Lilke Selection, "The Sultan of Sulu".....Walsh Waltz, "Danab Wave".....Ivanoff Selection, "The Three Tunes".....Rochina Chorus dance, "Mazurka".....Mazurka Descriptive fantasia, "A Day at West Point".....Bentley "The Star Spangled Banner".....Bentley

ACADEMY TERM ENDS

St. Patrick's School for Boys Graduates Three.

REV. DR. SHAHAN PRESIDES

Commencement of Parish Institution Held Amid Joyous Surroundings in Carroll Hall—Select Programme by Juvenile Artists Is Well Received. The Prize Winners Announced.

The closing exercises for the boys' department of St. Patrick's Academy and High School took place yesterday morning at 10 o'clock at Carroll Hall, in G street, Rev. Dr. Thomas J. Shahan, rector of the Catholic University, presiding. Until this year the boys and girls of St. Patrick's Academy have had their commencement exercises at the same time, but Rev. Thomas E. McGuigan suggested the present innovation, and the boys lived up to their opportunity by presenting an interesting and creditable programme.

St. Patrick's Academy has been in existence eighty-five years, but the high school was founded only four years ago by the late pastor, Rev. D. J. Stafford, and it was one of his pet projects. His sister, Mrs. A. G. Whitton, is the donor each year of a number of special prizes in his memory.

Diplomas Are Conferred. The names of the graduates and prize winners this year were announced by Father McGuigan, director of the school, and the diplomas were conferred on the first class of graduates by Dr. Thomas J. Shahan. The graduates were Henry George Brooks, John Irwin Barbour, and George Aloysius Degan.

Dr. Shahan, in his address expressed great interest and pleasure in conferring the diplomas upon the first graduates of St. Patrick's High School, and referred to the fact that they formed the connecting link between the school and university, as they were now prepared to enter the postgraduate department of that institution if they wished to do so. The programme was as follows:

Opening chorus; salutatory, Henry George Brooks; piano, William Connors, Randolph Smith, and Thomas Smith; chorus, minims, refraction, Janitor; solo and chorus, high school boys; homages; John Irwin Barbour; violinello, Paul Randall; solo and chorus, "Tantum Ergo"; solo, Charles Deleghery; violin solo, Paul Schwarz; solo, George Aloysius Degan; chorus, Janitor; address, Rev. Dr. T. J. Shahan.

The high school prize for the best essay in the Maryland day competition was awarded to John Irwin Barbour, the grammar school prize for the best essay in the Maryland day competition was awarded to Frederick Thues; the Rev. Dr. Stafford prize for English, offered in his memory by Mrs. A. C. Whitton, was won by Henry George Brooks, of the graduating class; the Rev. Dr. Stafford prize for English, offered by Mrs. A. C. Whitton, was won in the second and third year high school classes by Joseph Moore; the Rev. Dr. Stafford prize for English, offered by Mrs. A. C. Whitton, was won in the eighth grade by Elmer Fisher; the Rev. Dr. Stafford prize for English, offered in his memory by Mrs. A. C. Whitton, was won in the seventh grade by Bernard Brennan.

The Rev. Dr. Stafford prize for English, offered in his memory by Mrs. A. C. Whitton, was drawn for in the fifth and sixth grades by John Slater, Edwin Cox, Paul Shilley, Thomas Galleher, John Irwin Barbour, Joseph Galleher, William Grenfell, Joseph Walsh, William Hawkins, Dallas See, Bryan McKenna, Fulton J. Daly, Joseph Mulroe, and Luke W. Connors, and was won by Thomas Galleher. The Rev. Dr. Stafford prize for English, offered in his memory by Mrs. A. C. Whitton, was drawn for in the third and fourth grades by Randolph Smith, John Smith, Paul Sebastian, Stanley Craven, Michael McKenna, Carlos O'Connor, Joseph Lucas, Elsworth Gunton, Walter Mitchell, Edward Mitchell, Jr., and Henry McNerny, and was won by Henry McNerny.

Gets Special Mention. A special mention for not having missed a day from school during the past year was given George Dallas See, Tony Caruso, Joseph Daly, Fulton Holmes, and Louis McCarthy.

Testimonials for having completed in a satisfactory manner the preparatory course of the boys' high school were awarded to George Moskey, Thomas Degan, Russell Kieran, Elmer Fisher, William Sullivan, John D. Sullivan, Walter Lucas, James Shea, Percival Harlin, and Frederick Thues.

Certificates of promotion were awarded to Bernard Dunn, Hugh Fegan, and Lee Townshend, of the third year high school; to George Chambers, Charles Deleghery, Paul Ramsdell, and Roland Morrison, of the second year high school; to Leonard Burrows, Paul Cain, Charles Cross, Frank Lyons, Joseph Monroe, Paul Schwarz, and Rivera Townsend, of the first year high school.

Certificates in the grades were awarded as follows: Seventh grade—George Muld, Henry Moskey, Robert Lattier, George Emmert, Bernard Roenan, John L. Sullivan, Robert Flanagan, Jerome Sebastian, Edward Nizard, Joseph Dunn, Edmund Denda, Matthew Holmes. State grade—Fulton Holmes, Luke Fegan, George Dallas See, William Connors, Bryan McKenna, John Irwin Barbour, William Connors, Joseph Mulroe, Lewis Hawkins, Walter Cahill, Thomas Galleher, Thomas Smith, William Fry, Paul Shilley, Lee McDonald, Herbert McDonald, John Cleason. Fifth grade—Alfred Thompson, Bryan Sam, William White, Harold Gustaf, Harold Delavergne, Ralph Delavergne, Joseph Doyle, Tony Caruso, Edward Hon, Robert Smith, Hugh McKenna, Cyril Lammale, Michael J. Lyons, Eugene Brinkler, Robert Walsh, George Walsh, Edwin Cox, Warren Irvin, John Slater, Henry George Brooks, Clarence Arthur, Edward Faba, James Byrnes.

Fourth grade—Joseph Artiga, Louis Curran, Stanley Craven, Warren Craven, Carroll Fisher, Bernard Ginnema, Bernard Polliard, Bello Cato, John McDonald, John Dunworth, Gardiner Grenfell, William Allen, Ambrose Cannon, Philip Carr, Michael Chase, Ralph Davis, Harry Cato, Russell Swan.

The occasion closed with a few words of approbation and approval from the pastor, Dr. Russell, who imparted words of encouragement and congratulation to the graduates, the director of the school, and the efficient corps of teachers. The closing exercises for the girls of the academy will take place this morning at 10 o'clock in Carroll Hall.

Old Georgetown Alumnus Dies.

John E. Wilson, eighty years old, a graduate of Georgetown University, with bachelor and master's degrees, died Wednesday at his home on the historic Wakefield farm, the birthplace of Washington, in Westmoreland County, Va.

John E. Wilson, eighty years old, a graduate of Georgetown University, with bachelor and master's degrees, died Wednesday at his home on the historic Wakefield farm, the birthplace of Washington, in Westmoreland County, Va.

John E. Wilson, eighty years old, a graduate of Georgetown University, with bachelor and master's degrees, died Wednesday at his home on the historic Wakefield farm, the birthplace of Washington, in Westmoreland County, Va.

John E. Wilson, eighty years old, a graduate of Georgetown University, with bachelor and master's degrees, died Wednesday at his home on the historic Wakefield farm, the birthplace of Washington, in Westmoreland County, Va.

John E. Wilson, eighty years old, a graduate of Georgetown University, with bachelor and master's degrees, died Wednesday at his home on the historic Wakefield farm, the birthplace of Washington, in Westmoreland County, Va.

John E. Wilson, eighty years old, a graduate of Georgetown University, with bachelor and master's degrees, died Wednesday at his home on the historic Wakefield farm, the birthplace of Washington, in Westmoreland County, Va.

John E. Wilson, eighty years old, a graduate of Georgetown University, with bachelor and master's degrees, died Wednesday at his home on the historic Wakefield farm, the birthplace of Washington, in Westmoreland County, Va.

John E. Wilson, eighty years old, a graduate of Georgetown University, with bachelor and master's degrees, died Wednesday at his home on the historic Wakefield farm, the birthplace of Washington, in Westmoreland County, Va.

John E. Wilson, eighty years old, a graduate of Georgetown University, with bachelor and master's degrees, died Wednesday at his home on the historic Wakefield farm, the birthplace of Washington, in Westmoreland County, Va.

John E. Wilson, eighty years old, a graduate of Georgetown University, with bachelor and master's degrees, died Wednesday at his home on the historic Wakefield farm, the birthplace of Washington, in Westmoreland County, Va.

"Open an Account at Castelberg's."

Special Diamond Week at Castelberg's.

A RECENT large importation of Diamonds—the result of a very special purchase—enables us to extend this extraordinary opportunity. These are Full Cut, Blue-white Diamonds, beautifully mounted. The work was done in our own shop, which fact, in connection with the special purchase, is responsible for these exceptional values.

These Beautiful Diamond Rings, $25.00 $1 a week. Clear, blue-white, full-cut stones—each a gem of beauty. See the window display.

Don't miss this opportunity to own a beautiful Diamond Ring. It will prove a stepping stone to the possession of a larger and more valuable one. For instance, when you have made the final payment on one of these Rings at $25 you may exchange it for one worth, say, $75, and we will credit you with its full value. No additional cash payment will be required, and you may pay for the new Ring in the same manner as the first purchase. In this way you can continue to exchange your Ring for one more valuable each time. Now's your chance to make the start.

One of our salesmen will call upon request with a full line of Jewelry and authority to make terms, &c.

Consult Our Ophthalmologist About Your Eyes. No Charge.

Watch Repairing. Jewelry Repairing.

CASTELBERG'S

Washington's Leading Jeweler and Optician,

935 Penna. Ave. (Phone M. 2363.)

Yes or No?

If you need glasses after your careful examination of your eyes—we will tell you so—and make them for you, if you wish—but we'll be just as quick to say "no" if you don't.

Glasses from $1.00 Up.

Columbia Optical Co., 908 F Street N. W. (South side.)

Selections from Favorite Operas for the Piano.

Separate piano arrangements of "Maze Flute," "Don Giovanni," "Huguenots," "Tristan and Isolde," and many others in full form.

(G. Schirmer's Edition.) Regular selling price, 50c each. Sale Price, 19c Per Copy.

F. DROOP & SONS CO., 925 Penna. Ave. N. W.

Sold by Grocers.

BAD FOR BUGS.

Thompson's INSECT POWDER, 10c can.

W. Thompson Pharmacy, Frank C. Henry, Prop. 703 15th St.

BY USING Ceres Flour

It is always possible to turn out light, white, wholesome bread and crisp, tasty pastries.

Sold by Grocers.

WM. M. GALT & CO., Wholesale only.

First St. and Indiana Ave.

Largest Morning Circulation.

Strictly Reliable Qualities.

McKnew's

933 Penna. Avenue.

Stock-Taking Sale

Bargains for Friday

All Small Lots Ladies' Suits HALF PRICE.

Embracing the newest models in Light Serge and Prunella Suits.

$25.00 Suits, Half Price.....$12.50